Marlyssa D. Boucher

marlyssa.boucher@gmail.com · (806) 787 - 5303 · Lubbock, TX 79416

Summary

Highly motivated and detail-oriented coding student with strong customer service, communication, and problem solving skills. Seeking opportunities in a software programming or web development role. Willing to travel as required.

Education

Lubbock Coding Academy, Lubbock, TX   Expected graduation: May 2020
C# .NET Development

Texas Tech University, Lubbock, TX   Graduation date: December 2017
Bachelor of Science, Multidisciplinary Studies   GPA: 3.28

Experience

Geek Squad, Lubbock, TX   September 2018 - Present
Consultation Agent
- Initial computer diagnostics and troubleshooting hardware/software problems
- Installing software, modifying and repairing hardware, and resolving technical issues
- Recommending technology solutions according to the needs and preferences of the client
- Educating clients on multiple aspects of technology in terms that can be easily understood

EarlyCode, Lubbock, TX   September 2019 - February 2020
Lead Teacher
- Guiding students through the development, creation, and deployment of a business website
- Instructing students on the basics of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Developing and leading engaging lessons while assessing student comprehension and progress
- Establish classroom routines and procedures to provide structure and order

Additional Experience

Lubbock Coding Academy, Lubbock, TX, Tutor   February 2020 - Present

Alamo Drafthouse Cinemas, Lubbock, TX, Support Lead and Trainer   April 2014 - February 2019

Skills

- Most familiar with HTML, CSS, and C#
- Dabbled in JavaScript and SQLite
- Basic software design and debugging abilities

- Have experience in C# .NET, C++, and Angular
- Experienced with source control tools such as Git
- Knowledgeable in macOS and Windows systems

Honors & Awards

Dean's Honor List

Fannie Pillow Student Teaching Scholarship

Willard M. Kirkpatrick Family Scholarship